

Regulations concerning the Hygiene Supervision over Cosmetics

Chapter I General Provisions

Article 1 These Regulations are formulated to reinforce the hygiene supervision over cosmetics so as to ensure the hygiene quality and safety use of cosmetics and to safeguard the consumers' health.

Article 2 "Cosmetics" referred to in these Regulations are those daily chemical products that are applied on the surface of any part of the human body (such as skin, hair, nails and lips) by smearing, spraying and other similar ways to keep the body hygiene, to get rid of undesirable odors, to protect the skin and to enhance the beauty of the appearance.

Article 3 The state shall exercise hygiene supervision system over cosmetics. The health administrative department under the State Council is in charge of the nationwide hygiene supervisory work on cosmetics while the health administrative departments at or above the county level are in charge of the hygiene supervisory work on cosmetics within their respective jurisdiction.

Article 4 All units and individuals engaged in the production and business of cosmetics must abide by these Regulations.

Chapter II Hygiene Supervision over the Production of Cosmetics

Article 5 The State shall hygiene supervision over enterprises engaged in the production of cosmetics by means of hygiene license system.

The hygiene license for the production enterprises of cosmetics shall be approved and issued by the health administrative departments at the provincial, autonomous regional and municipal (directly under the State Council) level.
